Marietta:

Good morning, again! Attached you will find the final decision document for aldicarb! Debra, Shanta, and I met this morning, and we feel that this document now addresses your last remaining questions and/or comments. We've contacted Erin to garner her final approval, but wanted to get this document to you as quickly as possible to share with Ed. Shanta and Debra are now turning to focus on the RTCs, and I'm also working with them to see where any further consolidation of responses might be appropriate, with some possible suggestions. Nonetheless, let us know if you have questions; I'll have my work cell and personal cell (240-305-4353) available throughout the weekend.

Best regards,

Marion J.
